Okō Ceremony: In Nichiren Shoshu faith, the Okō ceremony is held to repay our debt of gratitude for the profound benefit of the Three Treasures: Nichiren Daishonin (the Buddha), the Dai-Gohonzon (the Law), and Nikko Shonin and the successive High Priests (the Priesthood). The concept of acknowledging and repaying debts of gratitude, which is the basic spirit of the Okō Ceremony, is essential to a correct understanding of True Buddhism and our own lives.
